AUTHORISATION FOR APPLYING FOI EXEMPTIONS/ EIR EXCEPTIONS

Applicant: Section 40 [redacted] Expiry 7 May 2009

Case Number: 07-04-2009-144242-005

The Applicant has made the following request for information:

I would be most grateful for a PDF copy of the [Rendlesham] file

Background

A Redacted version of the Rendlesham file was placed on the MoD website for public viewing before being removed in late 2007/early 2008 for copyright reasons. The applicant is referring to this.

The Rendlesham file was released on 4 occasions to date in 2009 and is one of the next batch of files due to be released to The National Archives later this year.

The information on the Rendlesham file is non contentious. However, such is the fame of this incident and public interest in the case, that a great many names of indivduals involved are now already in the public domain and it makes little sense to withhold them unnecessarily. It would also open the MoD up to possible censure and ridicule. Therefore, a number of names and addresses have not been withheld. This is consistent with previous releases of the file and that intended for publication. Redactions have already been agreed with DG Info.

The following Exemption(s) and/or Exception(s) are proposed as appropriate for this case (list and provide justification):

Information not disclosed (detail)	FOIA exemption Specify section	Reason for application of exemption	PIT carried out? (Y/N)[1]
Personal details, including names, telephone numbers, room numbers etc	40	Personal data	No. Absolute Exemption

The following comments will be made to the applicant

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request of 7 April 2009 asking for a copy of the Rendlesham file.

In accordance with your e-mail of the same date, please find enclosed a disk containing a copy of the Rendlesham File. Some personal information such as names, addresses and telephone numbers has been withheld under exemption s.40 (Personal Information) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000. As this exemption is an absolute exemption an assessment of the public interest for and against disclosure is not required under the terms of the Act.

You may wish to note that the file is a compilation file comprised of documents that were removed from their original file and placed on this file. This would account for the non sequential enclosure numbering. Although the file cover states the file was opened on 25 October 1982, it is clear that this was not the case. Sec(AS) was not in being at this time, only being formed in early 1985 and therefore no file with a reference number commencing with D/Sec(AS) could have been in existence in 1982. No record of when the file was created can be found.

The original the enclosed file is one of 160 due for transfer to The National Archives as part of an ongoing three year programme that was featured quite heavily in the UK media over 2008, to make our UFO files from 1979 to 2007 available to the general public,

The MOD has taken steps to keep this disk and any attachments free from viruses. However it accepts no liability for any loss or damage howsoever caused as a result of any virus being passed on. It is the responsibility of the recipient to perform all necessary checks.

I hereby give authorisation for the use of the aforementioned exemptions and/or exceptions in this case to withhold information from the Applicant:

SECRETARIAT NUMBER 36

AUTHORISATION FOR APPLYING FOI EXEMPTIONS/ EIR EXCEPTIONS

Applicant: Section 40 [redacted]

Expiry Date: 7 May 2009

Case Number: 14-04-2009-115257-004

The Applicant has made the following request for information:

Section 40 has asked for all MoD files on the Cosford incident which occurred in March 1993.

Background

The MoD has a single file on the Cosford incident which is due for transfer to The National Archives later this year as part of the UFO File release programme.

A PIT examining the case for withholding the file on the grounds it is due for future publication is outlined below and will be included in the response.

The following Exemption(s) and/or Exception(s) are proposed as appropriate for this case (list and provide justification):

Information not disclosed (detail)	FOIA exemption Specify section	Reason for application of exemption	PIT carried out? (Y/N)[1]
MoD File on Cosford incident	22	Information intended for future publication	Y

The following comments will be made to the applicant:

Thank you for your Freedom of Information (FOI) request dated 12 April 2009 asking for all files relating to the Cosford UFO Incident.

The Ministry of Defence (MoD) has a single file (D/Sec(AS)/12/7 Part A) covering this topic which is due for transfer to The National Archives later this year, where it will be available for public viewing.

Therefore, as provided by exemption s.22 (Information intended for future publication) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, the MoD is not obliged to comply with this part of your request.

This is not the end of the matter, of course; section 22 is a qualified exemption, meaning that the MOD must assess the balance of public interest in release of the information.

Whilst there is undoubtedly public interest in this file being released to the public as it will enable them to have a more informed view of the MoD's role in this incident, there is no overriding reason why the public should have the information immediately. Indeed it could be argued, that by releasing files in chronological order, the public will be able to follow the role of the MoD in a more logical and orderly fashion, and to view actions in their correct historical perspective.

It is part of effective administration of government that the publication of information is planned and managed within the department responsible. The release of this file will undermine this release process, and delay the release of other files (which other members of the public may be waiting for) as work on them would necessarily have to be put off.

Finally, the release programme itself is complicated and the release of files out of sequence will result in unnecessary confusion for the MoD, The National Archives and, indeed, the public when they are attempting to track files once they are transferred.

It is for these reasons that we do not believe it would be in the public interest to release these files at this moment

I hereby give authorisation for the use of the aforementioned exemptions and/or exceptions in this case to withhold information from the Applicant:

Dear Section 40

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request of 9 April 2009 asking for details of UFO sightings for 2008.

Firstly, it may be helpful if I explain that the Ministry of Defence (MoD) examines any reports of 'unidentified flying objects' it receives solely to establish whether what was seen might have some defence significance; namely, whether there is any evidence that the United Kingdom's airspace might have been compromised by hostile or unauthorised air activity.

Unless there is evidence of a potential threat to the United Kingdom from an external source, and to date no UFO report has revealed such evidence, we do not attempt to identify the precise nature of each sighting reported to us. We believe that rational explanations, such as aircraft lights or natural phenomena, could be found for them if resources were diverted for this purpose, but it is not the function of the MoD to provide this kind of aerial identification service. It would be an inappropriate use of defence resources if we were to do so.

The MoD does not have any expertise or role in respect of 'UFO/flying saucer' matters or the question of the existence or otherwise of extraterrestrial life forms, about which it remains totally open-minded. I should add that to date, the MoD knows of no evidence which substantiates the existence of these alleged phenomena.

Details of UFO sightings for 2008 are on the MoD website, however, as you do not have a computer, I have printed off the details for you and have included details of sightings logged on our database for 2009 to date.

I hope this is helpful.

I have been a Believer in flying saucers since about 1965 when I read the Betty e Barney Hill case from America "1961" it was to think, that case of ABduction'. My dad was in the RAF Bomber command he has now "gone" he passed away 3 months after mum sadly 15 years ago, he was a "Radio operator" mum was e flew in Halifax III planes'.

he never saw anything in the war like Foo fighters so called, But had a sighting in Back garden many many years ago of what he assumed was a Balloon he went & got his Binoculars & when he looked for it again it was gone, he said it would not have disapeared that fast. You do get Ridiculed when Talking about UFOs & Your sightings or one did in the Recent past, not so much these days However, I have got some stick I Believe from P/Borough City Council for Talking about them to Family, Friends & Various people cant Prove it of course But m' aware it is that, got me down as a Whistle Blower I suppose. its a Taboo subject embarrasing but its the Truth as I see it. Pilots etc Policemen/women & Thousands of the public have seen them worldwide, we read many Reports, Since last year I have wondered & Prayed that UFOs have nothing to do with Global warming climate change? Its a Burden I carry, Who knows really whats outside our planet in the universe. Human Beings are not as Intelligent as we like to think or we wouldn't have all these Terrible wars.

PS. It took a lot of courage to write that one.

anyway all the Best to you, & Please send me recent Reports of UFO's

Yours Sincerely

Dear Section 40

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request of 6 April 2009 asking for information regarding UFOs in Birmingham and the rest of the country over the last year.

Firstly, it may be helpful if I explain that the Ministry of Defence (MoD) examines any reports of 'unidentified flying objects' it receives solely to establish whether what was seen might have some defence significance; namely, whether there is any evidence that the United Kingdom's airspace might have been compromised by hostile or unauthorised air activity.

Unless there is evidence of a potential threat to the United Kingdom from an external source, and to date no UFO report has revealed such evidence, we do not attempt to identify the precise nature of each sighting reported to us. We believe that rational explanations, such as aircraft lights or natural phenomena, could be found for them if resources were diverted for this purpose, but it is not the function of the MoD to provide this kind of aerial identification service. It would be an inappropriate use of defence resources if we were to do so.

The MoD does not have any expertise or role in respect of 'UFO/flying saucer' matters or the question of the existence or otherwise of extraterrestrial life forms, about which it remains totally open-minded. I should add that to date, the MoD knows of no evidence which substantiates the existence of these alleged phenomena.
Details of UFO sightings reported to the MoD for the period 1997-2008 can be found by searching under UFO Reports on the MoD website at www.mod.uk. I attach a spreadsheet showing details of UFO sightings recorded by the MoD to date for 2009. You will note a few reports for 2008 that were not received in time to be placed on the MoD website. Additionally, in a number of cases, no firm date was given for the sighting and only the month is given.
I hope this is helpful.
If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Head of Corporate Information, 6th Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-XD@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, http://www.ico.gov.uk.

Dear Section 40

(original only)

Further to your e-mail of 24 April 2009, please find enclosed a disk containing the Cosford related documents that had previously been on the Ministry of Defence (MoD) website.

Some personal information such as names, addresses, telephone numbers etc has been withheld from the Cosford documents as they are not directly relevant to your request. You will notice that whilst most of the information withheld has been blacked out manually with a marker pen, some has clearly been blacked out electronically. These are amendments to bring the documents into line with current MoD practice and therefore the documents do not exactly match those that appeared on the website. That having been said, I do not believe that these amendments substantially alter the documents.

You may also wish to be aware that the full MoD file on the subject is due for transfer to The National Archives later this year.

The MOD has taken steps to keep the disk and any attachments free from viruses. However it accepts no liability for any loss or damage howsoever caused as a result of any virus being passed on. It is the responsibility of the recipient to perform all necessary checks.

I hope this is helpful.

If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

DearSection 40

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request of 26 March 2009 asking how many UFO sightings had there been in Scotland and Edinburgh, how much the government spends on replying or dealing with UFO sightings and what is the procedure for a reported sighting?

You have not given a timeframe for the number of sightings in Edinburgh and Scotland, but details of UFO sightings reported to the MoD for the period 1997-2008 can be found on the Ministry of Defence (MoD) website www.mod.uk by searching under the phrase "UFO Reports". To date this year, there have been two sightings near Edinburgh and nine in the rest of Scotland.

The MoD, which has the lead across government in dealing with UFO matters, employs one full time civil servant (myself) dedicated to dealing with the subject of UFOs. The post is at D Grade, which is the most junior management level within the Ministry. Whilst it would be inappropriate to provide individual salary details, the pay range for D grade posts is £20,815-£27,159 per year.

In addition to my post, I receive some administrative support from an E1 Grade civil servant and my civil service line manager at C1 grade has oversight of my work. Approximately 20% of the E1's and C1's time is spent on UFO related matters. The annual pay range for an E1 is £15,847-£20,074 and for the C1 it is £32,623-£41,325. All three posts attract a standard local recruitment and retention allowance for RAF High Wycombe of £2000 per year. As a rough guide therefore, based on the highest annual salary, total costs are in the order of £40,000 per year.

In the majority of cases, the procedure for dealing with UFO reports is to record the details of the sighting and to write to the individual concerned, explaining the limited involvement of the MoD in UFO matters. At the beginning of each year we place details of the preceding year's sightings on the MoD website.

On occasion we do investigate reports. This usually involves liaising with air defence experts (such as radar specialists) on, perhaps, half a dozen reports per year. These will generally be sightings made by aircrew, members of the armed forces or the police. However, to date, the MoD knows of no evidence which substantiates the existence of these alleged phenomena.
I hope this is helpful.
If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Head of Corporate Information, 6th Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-XD@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, http://www.ico.gov.uk.

As I stated, it was not entirely clear whether you were seeking information specifically limited to sightings of UFOs made in 2008 or reports received by the MoD during the course of 2008, which could include reports from 2007 or even earlier.

I would be grateful if you would clarify this matter so I can provide you with a response to your initial query.

Subject: Release-Authorised: 20090408-FOI Response Section 40 UFOs 12-03-2009-145828-003

Dear Section 40 [redacted]

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request of 12 March 2009 asking for any details of UFOs.

Firstly, it may be helpful if I explain that the Ministry of Defence (MoD) examines any reports of 'unidentified flying objects' it receives solely to establish whether what was seen might have some defence significance; namely, whether there is any evidence that the United Kingdom's airspace might have been compromised by hostile or unauthorised air activity.

Unless there is evidence of a potential threat to the United Kingdom from an external source, and to date no UFO report has revealed such evidence, we do not attempt to identify the precise nature of each sighting reported to us. We believe that rational explanations, such as aircraft lights or natural phenomena, could be found for them if resources were diverted for this purpose, but it is not the function of the MoD to provide this kind of aerial identification service. It would be an inappropriate use of defence resources if we were to do so.

The MoD does not have any expertise or role in respect of 'UFO/flying saucer' matters or the question of the existence or otherwise of extraterrestrial life forms, about which it remains totally open-minded. I should add that to date, the MoD knows of no evidence which substantiates the existence of these alleged phenomena.

Turning to your request, the MoD has over 170 UFO files and the costs of preparing them for release would far exceed the £600 limit set for compliance with the Freedom of Information Act and, as provided by Section 12 of the Act, the Ministry of Defence is not obliged to comply with your request.

However, you may wish to be aware that the MOD has already released a great deal of information about UFOs which is available for public viewing. MOD files were routinely destroyed after five years until 1967 when they were generally preserved for The National Archives. A few have survived before 1967 and these together with records up to 1992 are now available for public viewing. They can be contacted at Ruskin Avenue, Richmond, Kew, Surrey TW9 4DU or telephone, 020 8876 3444. The National Archives also have a website giving information about the records they hold and how to access them. This can be found on the internet at www.nationalarchives.gov.uk.
The MoD currently has a programme to transfer some 160 UFO files for the period up to 2007 to The National Archives by the close of 2010. It is hoped that files for the period 1992-2000 will be transferred by the end of this year and they will be made available for public viewing on the internet. Details of all sightings for the period 1997-2008 are available on the MoD website www.mod.uk by searching under "UFO Reports". UFO sightings for 2009 will also be placed on the website in January 2010.
If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Head of Corporate Information, 6th Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-XD@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, http://www.ico.gov.uk.

Dear Section 40 [redacted]

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request of 25 March 2009 asking for a list of all unexplained UFO sightings in England, reported in England and recorded since 1999. You also state that you would like details such as location, date and a brief description of each sighting.

Firstly, it may be helpful if I explain that the Ministry of Defence (MoD) examines any reports of 'unidentified flying objects' it receives solely to establish whether what was seen might have some defence significance; namely, whether there is any evidence that the United Kingdom's airspace might have been compromised by hostile or unauthorised air activity.

Details of UFO sightings reported to the MoD for the periodc 1997-2008 can be found by searching under UFO Reports on the MoD website at www.mod.uk. I attach a spreadsheet showing details of UFO sightings recorded by the MoD to date for 2009. You will note a few reports for 2008 that were not received in time to be placed on the MoD website. Additionally, in a number of cases, no firm date was given for the sighting and only the month is given.
I hope this is helpful.

Dear Section 40 [redacted]

Thank you for your e-mail of 24 March 2009 asking how you can obtain the Ministry of Defence (MoD) documents on the Rendlesham Forest Incident of 1980. Your e-mail is being treated as a formal request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Providing you with all documentation the MoD holds on the Rendlesham incident would involve manually checking, as a minimum, some 100 UFO files, and then preparing relevant documents for release, the cost of which would exceed far the £600 limit set for compliance with the Freedom of Information Act and, as provided by Section 12 of the Act, the Ministry of Defence is not obliged to comply with your request.

However, the MoD has a file on this incident, that was created sometime after the incident and which is currently being prepared for release to The National Archives as part of a programme to transfer some 160 MOD files on UFO matters. The MoD had previously placed the file on its own website, but has had to remove this for copyright reasons. If you would like a copy of our file on Rendlesham, please let me know whether you prefer a PDF copy on disk (our preferred option as it saves on paper and postage costs) or a hard copy, together with your address and I will forward it to you. I am afraid that due to the size of the file, I am unable to e-mail it to you.

You may wish to be aware that the MOD has already released a great deal of information about UFOs which is available for public viewing. MOD files were routinely destroyed after five years until 1967 when they were generally preserved for The National Archives. Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Dear Section 40

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request of 13 March 2009 asking for details of all UFOs reported in the West Midlands and the conclusions of what the "craft" were.

Firstly, it may be helpful if I explain that the Ministry of Defence (MoD) examines any reports of 'unidentified flying objects' it receives solely to establish whether what was seen might have some defence significance; namely, whether there is any evidence that the United Kingdom's airspace might have been compromised by hostile or unauthorised air activity.

Unless there is evidence of a potential threat to the United Kingdom from an external source, and to date no UFO report has revealed such evidence, we do not attempt to identify the precise nature of each sighting reported to us. We believe that rational explanations, such as aircraft lights or natural phenomena, could be found for them if resources were diverted for this purpose, but it is not the function of the MoD to provide this kind of aerial identification service. It would be an inappropriate use of defence resources if we were to do so.

The MoD does not have any expertise or role in respect of 'UFO/flying saucer' matters or the question of the existence or otherwise of extraterrestrial life forms, about which it remains totally open-minded. I should add that to date, the MoD knows of no evidence which substantiates the existence of these alleged phenomena.

Details of all sightings for the period 1997-2008 are available on the MoD website www.mod.uk by searching under "UFO Reports". UFO sightings for 2009 will also be placed on the website in January 2010.

I hope this is helpful.

Dear Section 40

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request of 24 March 2009 asking how many UFO reports the Ministry of Defence received for 2007-2009 and for any other information on UFOs.

Firstly, it may be helpful if I explain that the Ministry of Defence (MoD) examines any reports of 'unidentified flying objects' it receives solely to establish whether what was seen might have some defence significance; namely, whether there is any evidence that the United Kingdom's airspace might have been compromised by hostile or unauthorised air activity.

Unless there is evidence of a potential threat to the United Kingdom from an external source, and to date no UFO report has revealed such evidence, we do not attempt to identify the precise nature of each sighting reported to us. We believe that rational explanations, such as aircraft lights or natural phenomena, could be found for them if resources were diverted for this purpose, but it is not the function of the MoD to provide this kind of aerial identification service. It would be an inappropriate use of defence resources if we were to do so.

Despite a great many rumours, the MoD does not have any expertise or role in respect of 'UFO/flying saucer' matters or the question of the existence or otherwise of extraterrestrial life forms, about which it remains totally open-minded. I should add that to date, the MoD knows of no evidence which substantiates the existence of these alleged phenomena.

Details of sightings received by the MoD for the period 1997-2008 are available on the MoD website www.mod.uk by searching under "UFO Reports". I attach details of UFO sightings for 2009 to date. You will note that in a number of instances we do not have an exact date for the sighting. Also we received a handful of sightings for 2008 after we had placed the figures for that year on our website.

You may wish to be aware that the MOD has already released a great deal of information about UFOs which is available for public viewing. MOD files were routinely destroyed after five years until 1967 when they were generally preserved for The National Archives. A few have survived before 1967 and these together with records up to 1992 are now available for public viewing. The National Archives can be contacted at Ruskin Avenue, Richmond, Kew, Surrey TW9 4DU or telephone, 020 8876 3444. The National Archives also have a website giving information about the records they hold and how to access them. This can be found on the internet at www.nationalarchives.gov.uk.

The National Archives makes a small charge for people to view these files, but they placed seven new files on their website this week and for a short period of time they are available for viewing at no charge. The Ministry of Defence Freedom of Information website also contains some released information on UFOs. This can be accessed the internet at www.mod.uk by searching under "UFO".
I hope this is helpful and good luck with your project.

AUTHORISATION FOR APPLYING FOI EXEMPTIONS/ EIR EXCEPTIONS

Applicant: Section 40 [redacted]

Expiry 31 March 2009

Case Number: 03-03-2009-105321-005

The Applicant has made the following request for information:

A copy of the official case file for the Cosford Incident. I understand that the documents were withdrawn from the MoD website for copyright reasons.

Background

Alongside the Rendlesham Incident, the Cosford Incident is probably the most famous UFO incident in the UK. A number of redacted documents relating to the Cosford incident were placed on the MoD website for public viewing before being removed in late 2007/early 2008 for copyright reasons. These documents comprised the bulk of the documents on the MoD file but the file itself was not released. Whilst confusing the two, the applicant has clearly asked for the file. There is no reason why the applicant cannot be provided with the documents that previously appeared on the website. However, the residual documents, which together with those published already form the Cosford file, should be withheld under exemption s.22 as it is one of the batch of files due for transfer to The National Archives later this year.

The Cosford file itself was withheld on 2 occasions in 2008 under exemption s.22 but the documentation previously on the website was released 7 times in 2008.

The information on the Cosford file is largely non contentious but two documents, already in the public domain following earlier FOI requests, can be misinterpreted as an admission that the MoD believed an alien craft penetrated UK airspace. In fact, the MoD concern was centred on the alleged Aurora aircraft. All redactions on the file and those on the documents previously placed on the website are made under exemption s.40 and have already been agreed with CMem.

The following Exemption(s) and/or Exception(s) are proposed as appropriate for this case (list and provide justification):

Information not disclosed (detail)	FOIA exemption Specify section	Reason for application of exemption	PIT carried out? (Y/N)[1]
Personal details, including names, telephone numbers, room numbers etc	40	Personal data	No. Absolute Exemption
Cosford File	22	Information intended for future publication	Y

The following comments will be made to the applicant

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request of 3 March 2009 asking for a copy of the official case file of the Cosford Incident in 1993.

A number of Cosford related documents were placed on the Ministry of Defence website but later withdrawn for copyright reasons, as you say. The documents are too large for me to e-mail to you but I can send you a copy on disk or paper. In order to save on paper and postage costs, our preferred option would be to provide you with the information on disk, however, the choice is yours. Please let me know which you would prefer.

I should make it clear that whilst these documents constitute the bulk of the MoD file on the subject, the full file is currently being prepared for transfer to The National Archives as part of a major programme to transfer some 160 UFO files covering the late 1970s to 2007. It is expected the file will be available to the public later this year.

Therefore, as provided by exemption s.22 (Information intended for future publication) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, the MoD is not obliged to comply with this part of your request.

This is not the end of the matter, of course; section 22 is a qualified exemption, meaning that the MOD must assess the balance of public interest in release of the information.

Whilst there is undoubtedly public interest in this file being released to the public as it will enable them to have a more informed view of the MoD's role in this incident, there is no overriding reason why the public should have the information immediately. Indeed it could be argued, that by releasing files in chronological order, the public will be able to follow the role of the MoD in a more logical and orderly fashion, and to view actions in their correct historical perspective.

It is part of effective administration of government that the publication of information is planned and managed within the department responsible. The release of this file will undermine this release process, and delay the release of other files (which other members of the public may be waiting for) as work on them would necessarily have to be put off.

Finally, the release programme itself is complicated and the release of files out of sequence will result in unnecessary confusion for the MoD, The National Archives and, indeed, the public when they are attempting to track files once they are transferred.

It is for these reasons that we do not believe it would be in the public interest to release these files at this moment. However, I do hope that the information we can provide on the Cosford Incident will be helpful to you.

I hereby give authorisation for the use of the aforementioned exemptions and/or exceptions in this case to withhold information from the Applicant:

Dear Section 40

Further to your e-mail of 19 March 2009, please find enclosed a disk containing the Cosford related documents that had previously been on the Ministry of Defence website.

Some personal information such as names, addresses, telephone numbers etc has been withheld from the Cosford documents as they are not directly relevant to your request. You will notice that whilst most of the information withheld has been blacked out manually with a marker pen, some has clearly been blacked out electronically. These are amendments to bring the documents into line with current MoD practice and therefore the documents do not exactly match those that appeared on the website. That having been said, I do not believe that these amendments substantially alter the documents.

The MOD has taken steps to keep the disk and any attachments free from viruses. However it accepts no liability for any loss or damage howsoever caused as a result of any virus being passed on. It is the responsibility of the recipient to perform all necessary checks.

It is expected the file will be available to the public later this year.
> Therefore, as provided by exemption s.22 (Information intended for future publication) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, the MoD is not obliged to comply with this part of your request.
> This is not the end of the matter, of course; section 22 is a qualified exemption, meaning that the MOD must assess the balance of public interest in release of the information.
> Whilst there is undoubtedly public interest in this file being released to the public as it will enable them to have a more informed view of the MoD's role in this incident, there is no overriding reason why the public should have the information immediately. Indeed it could be argued, that by releasing files in chronological order, the public will be able to follow the role of the MoD in a more logical and orderly fashion, and to view actions in their correct historical perspective.
> It is part of effective administration of government that the publication of information is planned and managed within the department responsible. The release of this file will undermine this release process, and delay the release of other files (which other members of the public may be waiting for) as work on them would necessarily have to be put off.

Finally, the release programme itself is complicated and the release of files out of sequence will result in unnecessary confusion for the MoD, The National Archives and, indeed, the public when they are attempting to track files once they are transferred.

It is for these reasons that we do not believe it would be in the public interest to release these files at this moment. However, I do hope that the information we can provide on the Cosford Incident will be helpful to you.

If you are unhappy with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of this request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Director of Information Exploitation, 6th Floor, MODMain Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail InfoXD@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain unhappy following an internal review, you may wish to take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the internal review process has been completed. Dear Section 40

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request of 17 March 2009 asking for details of UFO sightings for February 2009, which I attach.* You also wanted to know if UFO sightings are placed on the MoD website annually.

I can confirm the Ministry of Defence places details of UFO sightings on its website on an annual basis and that sightings for 2009 will be placed on the MoD website for public viewing in January 2010.

I hope this is helpful.

DearSection 40

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request of 22 January 2009 asking for details of all UFOs reported to the Ministry of Defence (MoD) since 1 January 2007. You also requested copies of the MoD response to in each case including any correspondence between the MoD and the individual making the response.

Details of all sightings for the period 1997-2008 are available on the MoD website www.mod.uk by searching under "UFO Reports". I attach details of UFO sightings for January 2009.

The cost of providing you with copies of MoD responses to these sightings would require us to prepare in the region of 400 documents for release to you by removing any personal data which would exceed the £600 limit set for compliance with the Freedom of Information Act and, as provided by Section 12 of the Act, the Ministry of Defence is not obliged to comply with your request. That having been said, the overwhelming majority of responses would be very similar and I attach a sample copy for your information. The names and contact details of individuals have been removed from this document as they are not a substantive part of the information you requested.
I am sorry I can not be more helpful.

Subject: Release-Authorised: 20090319-FOI ResponseSection 40 Rendlsham Documents 25-02-2009-072625-003-U

Dear Section 40

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request of 23 February 2009 asking for copies of any and all documentation regarding the alleged UFO incident at Rendlesham Forrest in 1980. The other aspects of your request will be dealt with by another branch.

Answering your request would involve manually checking, as a minimum, some 100 UFO files, and then preparing relevant documents for release, the cost of which would exceed far the £600 limit set for compliance with the Freedom of Information Act and, as provided by Section 12 of the Act, the Ministry of Defence is not obliged to comply with your request.

Whilst it is not possible to quantify without undertaking a major administrative exercise, my experience would suggest that the overwhelming majority of documents mentioning the Rendlesham incident are requests for information or correspondence from members of the public such as yourself, which may not provide you with the information you are looking for. However, the MoD has a file on this incident, that was created sometime after the incident and which is currently being prepared for release to The National Archives as part of a programme to transfer some 160 MOD files on UFO matters. The MoD had previously placed the file on its own website, but has had to remove this for copyright reasons. If you would like a copy of our file on Rendlesham, please let me know whether you prefer a PDF copy on disk (our preferred option as it saves on paper and postage costs) or a hard copy, together with your address and I will forward it to you. I am afraid that due to the size of the file, I am unable to e-mail it to you.

You may wish to be aware that the MOD has already released a great deal of information about UFOs which is available for public viewing. MOD files were routinely destroyed after five years until 1967 when they were generally preserved for The National Archives. A few have survived before 1967 and these together with records up to 1992 are now available for public viewing. The National Archives can be contacted at Ruskin Avenue, Richmond, Kew, Surrey TW9 4DU or telephone, 020 8876 3444. The National Archives also have a website giving information about the records they hold and how to access them. This can be found on the internet at: http://www.nationalarchives.gov.uk.

If you are unhappy with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of this request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Director of Information Exploitation, 6th Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail InfoXD@mod.uk). Since we don't know how much documentation we will find on each file, this is extremely difficult to cost

Applicant: Section 40 [redacted] Expiry 27 March 2009

Case Number: 02-03-2009-115117-004-U

The Applicant has made the following request for information:

I would be grateful for a copy of the Rendlesham documents removed from the MoD website

Background

A Redacted version of the Rendlesham file was placed on the MoD website for public viewing before being removed in late 2007/early 2008 for copyright reasons. The applicant is referring to this.

The Rendlesham file was released on 2 occasions to date in 2009 and is one of the next batch of files due to be released to The National Archives later this year.

The information on the Rendlesham file is non contentious. However, such is the fame of this incident and public interest in the case, that a great many names of indivduals involved are now already in the public domain and it makes little sense to withhold them unnecessarily. It would also open the MoD up to possible censure and ridicule. Therefore, a number of names and addresses have not been withheld. This is consistent with previous releases of the file and that intended for publication. Redactions have already been agreed with DG Info.

The following Exemption(s) and/or Exception(s) are proposed as appropriate for this case (list and provide justification):

Information not disclosed (detail)	FOIA exemption Specify section	Reason for application of exemption	PIT carried out? (Y/N)[1]
Personal details, including names, telephone numbers, room numbers etc	40	Personal data	No. Absolute Exemption

The following comments will be made to the applicant

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request of 28 February 2009 asking for a copy of documents on the Rendlesham Incident removed from the Ministry of Defence (MoD) website.

In accordance with your e-mail of 3 March 2009, please find enclosed a disk containing a copy of the Rendlesham File. Some personal information such as names, addresses and telephone numbers has been withheld under exemption s.40 (Personal Information) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000. As this exemption is an absolute exemption an assessment of the public interest for and against disclosure is not required under the terms of the Act.

You may wish to note that the file is a compilation file comprised of documents that were removed from their original file and placed on this file. This would account for the non sequential enclosure numbering. Although the file cover states the file was opened on 25 October 1982, it is clear that this was not the case. Sec(AS) was not in being at this time, only being formed in early 1985 and therefore no file with a reference number commencing with D/Sec(AS) could have been in existence in 1982. No record of when the file was created can be found.

The original the enclosed file is one of 160 due for transfer to The National Archives as part of an ongoing three year programme that was featured quite heavily in the UK media over 2008, to make our UFO files from 1979 to 2007 available to the general public,

The MOD has taken steps to keep this disk and any attachments free from viruses. However it accepts no liability for any loss or damage howsoever caused as a result of any virus being passed on. It is the responsibility of the recipient to perform all necessary checks.

I hereby give authorisation for the use of the aforementioned exemptions and/or exceptions in this case to withhold information from the Applicant:

The document you a referring to is the MoD file on the subject. As the file is quite large, I am unable to e-mail it to you. If you can supply me with your postal address, I can provide you with either an electronic copy on disk or a paper copy. The documents on the Rendlesham document. Clarified to mean the Rendlesham file.

Background

A Redacted version of the Rendlesham file was placed on the MoD website for public viewing before being removed in late 2007/early 2008 for copyright reasons. The applicant is referring to this.

The Rendlesham file was released on 2 occasions to date in 2009 and is one of the next batch of files due to be released to The National Archives later this year.

The information on the Rendlesham file is non contentious. However, such is the fame of this incident and public interest in the case, that a great many names of indivduals involved are now already in the public domain and it makes little sense to withhold them unnecessarily. It would also open the MoD up to possible censure and ridicule. Therefore, a number of names and addresses have not been withheld. This is consistent with previous releases of the file and that intended for publication. Redactions have already been agreed with DG Info.

The following Exemption(s) and/or Exception(s) are proposed as appropriate for this case (list and provide justification):

Information not disclosed (detail)	FOIA exemption Specify section	Reason for application of exemption	PIT carried out? (Y/N)[1]
Personal details, including names, telephone numbers, room numbers etc	40	Personal data	No. Absolute Exemption

The following comments will be made to the applicant:

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request of 1 March 2009 asking for a copy of documents on the Rendlesham Incident.

Please find enclosed a paper copy of the Rendlesham File. Some personal information such as names, addresses and telephone numbers has been withheld under exemption s.40 (Personal Information) of the Freedom of Information Act

2000. As this exemption is an absolute exemption an assessment of the public interest for and against disclosure is not required under the terms of the Act.

You may wish to note that the file is a compilation file comprised of documents that were removed from their original file and placed on this file. This would account for the non sequential enclosure numbering. Although the file cover states the file was opened on 25 October 1982, it is clear that this was not the case. Sec(AS) was not in being at this time, only being formed in early 1985 and therefore no file with a reference number commencing with D/Sec(AS) could have been in existence in 1982. No record of when the file was created can be found.

The original of the enclosed file is one of 160 due for transfer to The National Archives as part of an ongoing three year programme that was featured quite heavily in the UK media over 2008, to make Directorate of Air Staff and Defence Intelligence Staff UFO files from 1979 to 2007 available to the general public.

I hereby give authorisation for the use of the aforementioned exemptions and/or exceptions in this case to withhold information from the Applicant:

Dear Section 40

Please find enclosed a paper copy of the Rendlesham File. Some personal information such as names, addresses and telephone numbers has been withheld under exemption s.40 (Personal Information) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000. As this exemption is an absolute exemption an assessment of the public interest for and against disclosure is not required under the terms of the Act.

You may wish to note that the file is a compilation file comprised of documents that were removed from their original file and placed on this file. This would account for the non sequential enclosure numbering. Although the file cover states the file was opened on 25 October 1982, it is clear that this was not the case. I hope this is helpful.

Dear [redacted]

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request of 1 March 2009 asking for a copy of the documents on the Rendlesham Incident. I assume you are referring to the file removed from the MoD website for copyright reasons. If this is incorrect, please let me know.

The document I think you are referring to is the MoD file on the subject. As the file is quite large, I am unable to e-mail it to you. If you can supply me with your postal address, I can provide you with either an electronic copy on disk or a paper copy. Although we would prefer to send a disk since this will save paper, the choice is yours.

Dear Section 40 [redacted]

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request of 11 February 2009 asking for details of UFO sightings reported to the Ministry of Defence.

Details of UFO sightings for the period 1997-2008 are now available for public viewing on the MoD website www.mod.uk by searching under UFO reports. Details of sightings for 2009 will be added in January 2010. I attach details of UFO sightings for 2009 to date. In a number of cases we do not have the actual date of the sighting. You will also note a small number of reports covering 2008. These were received after the bulk of the 2008 reports were placed on the website.

You may also wish to be aware that the Ministry of Defence (MoD) has already released a great deal of information about UFOs which is available for public viewing. MoD files were routinely destroyed after five years until 1967 when they were generally preserved for The National Archives. A few have survived before 1967 and these together with records up to 1992 are now available for public viewing. A major programme to transfer UFO files from the Directorate of Air Staff and Defence Intelligence Staff covering the period up to 2007, is currently underway and it is hoped this will be completed by the end of 2010. The National Archives can be contacted at Ruskin Avenue, Richmond, Kew, Surrey TW9 4DU or telephone, 020 8876 3444. The National Archives also have a website giving information about the records they hold and how to access them. This can be found on the internet at www.nationalarchives.gov.uk.
I hope this is helpful.
If you are unhappy with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of this request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Director of Information Exploitation, 6th Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail InfoXD@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain unhappy following an internal review, you may wish to take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, http://www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk.

Dear Section 40

Thank you for your e-mail of 25 January 2009 asking how the MoD investigates UFO reports and whether the MoD has to investigate over extended periods of time.

The MoD examines any reports of 'unidentified flying objects' it receives solely to establish whether what was seen might have some defence significance; namely, whether there is any evidence that the United Kingdom's airspace might have been compromised by hostile or unauthorized foreign military activity.

Unless there is evidence of a potential threat to the United Kingdom from an external military source, and to date no 'UFO' report has revealed such evidence, we do not attempt to identify the precise nature of each sighting reported to us. We believe that rational explanations, such as aircraft lights or natural [redacted]enomena, could be found for them if resources were diverted for this purpose, but it is not the function of the MoD to provide this kind of aerial identification service. It would be an inappropriate use of defence resources if we were to do so.

That having been said, we do occasionally investigate sightings reported to the MoD. This usually involves liaising with air defence specialists (e.g. radar experts) on perhaps half a dozen sightings per year. These will generally be sightings made by aircrew, members of the armed forces or the police. Each case is viewed on an individual basis and it is not possible to predict how long an investigation would take or what course it would follow. However, I can say that investigations are limited in their nature and likely to be concluded within weeks, rather than months. I am not aware of any investigation in recent years lasting for more than a few weeks.
I hope this is helpful.

9 March 2009

Dear Section 40

Thank you for your letter of 3 February 2009 asking what Nick Pope's actual role was within the UFO Desk scenario.

Your letter is being treated as a request for recorded information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. Section 1(1)(a) of the Act , subject to certain exclusions, gives any person making a request for information to a public authority the entitlement to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request and that section 1(1)(b), subject to certain exemptions, creates an entitlement to receive the information held by the public authority.

Unfortunately we do not hold any recorded information relevant to your request and the Act does not require us to create new information in order to satisfy a request. However, in an effort to provide help and assistance (as we are obliged to do under section 16 of the Act) I can inform you that the UFO related tasks carried out by myself are highly likely to have been broadly similar to those originally undertaken by Mr Pope when he was in MOD. These include the answering of parliamentary correspondence, which would include letters from MPs and Parliamentary Questions, together with correspondence from members of the public such as yourself, on the subject of UFOs.

Additionally, I also record UFO sightings reported to the Ministry of Defence and, occasionally, investigate those reports to see if they have any defence significance. However, you should bear in mind that my role may not exactly match that of Mr Pope.

I hope this is helpful.

If you are unhappy with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Director of Information Exploitation, 6th

Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail Info-XD@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain unhappy following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate the case until the internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, http://www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk."

I have seen recently in the national press Nick Pope being referred to as a former "expert" for the MoD in regards to UFOs. I am well aware of the media's predilection for creating a story that fits but could you explain what Nick Pope's actual role was within the UFO desk scenario.

This looks fine to me provided we are absolutely clear that the Nick Pope DAS (Sec) era job spec is not 'held' by MOD (i.e. no longer exists). That is what is in scope of the request and the issue that would be the subject of the internal review by DG Info if it goes to appeal.

I have adapted your advice on a response regarding Mr Pope below. I have not offered an up to date job description since only 20% of Pope's time was spent on UFOs, whilst I spend all my time on that subject. I can't see any elephant traps – can you?

Dear Section 40

Thank you for your letter of 3 February 2009 asking what Nick Pope's actual role was within the UFO Desk scenario.

Your letter is being treated as a request for recorded information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. Section 1(1)(a) of the Act , subject to certain exclusions, gives any person making a request for information to a public authority the entitlement to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request and that section 1(1)(b), subject to certain exemptions, creates an entitlement to receive the information held by the public authority.

Unfortunately we do not hold any recorded information relevant to your request and the Act does not require us to create new information in order to satisfy a request. However, in an effort to provide help and assistance (as we are obliged to do under section 16 of the Act) I can inform you that the UFO related tasks carried out by myself are highly likely to have been broadly similar to those originally undertaken by Mr Pope when he was in MOD. These include the answering of parliamentary correspondence, which would include letters from MPs and Parliamentary Questions, together with correspondence from members of the public such as yourself, on the subject of UFOs. Subject: DG Info advice on Section 40 FOI request (AIT 11-02-2009-114532-001)

Section 40
My advice is to keep your reply simple. This is a job description request. Do not create an explanation for Section 40
Section 40 establish whether MOD holds a generic job description for Mr Pope's former post. (By generic I mean free of personal name data and appropriate for whoever occupied the C2 role in Sec AS).

Write back to Section 40 and say that his request is being treated as a request for recorded information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. Section 1(1)(a) of the Act , subject to certain exclusions, gives any person making a request for information to a public authority the entitlement to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request and that section 1(1)(b), subject to certain exemptions, creates an entitlement to receive the information held by the public authority.

If we hold information relevant to the request you say:

> Please find a generic job description for the type of post Mr Pope occupied.

If we do not hold information relevant to the request you say:

> Unfortunately we do not hold any recorded information relevant to your request and the Act does not require us to create new information in order to satisfy a request. However, in an effort to provide help and assistance (as we are obliged to do under section 16 of the Act) I enclose a copy of the job description of the equivalent post today but bear in mind that the present role may not match exactly all those tasks which were originally undertaken by Mr Pope when he was in MOD.

+ in both scenarios end your letter with the standard appeals paragraph.

There is nothing on the files that I reviewed in relation to Section 40 request that is relevant to Section 40 request (i.e. there is not a copy of Nick Pope's job description).

Jory,

I have received a (paper) FOI request 11-02-2009-114532-001 from a Section 40 asking about Mr Pope:

[redacted]y gut reaction is to state that this would be personal data (since it refers to the man himself) and therefore exempted under Section 40 but to ask Section 40 if he wishes to re-apply with a different question, perhaps about Mr Pope's old post (Sec (AS)2 if memory serves).

Alternatively, we could provide a limited response explaining Mr Pope was a civil servant occupying a post within Sec (AS) which covered a wide range of air defence issues of which UFO was but a small part. I have redacted document due for release at The National Archives this year in which Pope himself states that about 20% of his salary costs revolved round UFOs. It will of course be obvious to anyone that knows about him that the document refers to him. Indeed the UFO files from Pope's time should all be going across to TNA this year.

I know you did a lot of work on Section 40 request about Mr Pope's public statements and wanted your advice about the way forward with this one. Did your deliberations throw up any new thinking about him? As you are aware, there are no particular defence issues surrounding Mr Pope's time at the UFO desk and he has hardly hidden his past employment in that role!

Any help would be gratefully received.

6 March 2009

Dear Section 40

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request of 27 February 2009 asking for any information available on the subject of UFOs.

The Ministry of Defence has over 170 UFO related files that would need to be prepared for release to you, the cost which would far exceed the £600 limit set for compliance with the Freedom of Information Act and, as provided by Section 12 of the Act, the Ministry of Defence is not obliged to comply with your request.

However, although you do not state exactly what information you require, you may wish to be aware that the Ministry of Defence (MoD) has already released a great deal of information about UFOs which is available for public viewing. MoD files were routinely destroyed after five years until 1967 when they were generally preserved for The National Archives. A few have survived before 1967 and these together with records up to 1992 are now available for public viewing. A major programme to transfer UFO files from the Directorate of Air Staff and Defence Intelligence Staff covering the period up to 2007, is currently underway and it is hoped this will be completed by the end of 2010. The National Archives can be contacted at Ruskin Avenue, Richmond, Kew, Surrey TW9 4DU or telephone, 020 8876 3444. The National Archives also have a website giving information about the records they hold and how to access them. This can be found on the internet at www.nationalarchives.gov.uk.

The MoD website also contains some released information on UFOs including details of UFO sightings for the period 1997-2008. This can be accessed the internet at www.mod.uk, by searching under "UFO reports". Details of sightings for 2009 will be placed on the website in January 2010.

I hope this is helpful.

If you are unhappy with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of this request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Director of Information Exploitation, 6th Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail InfoXD@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain unhappy following an internal review, you may wish to take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, http://www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk.

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION CORRESPONDENCE - TO BE GIVEN A HIGH PRIORITY

Dear Focal Point(s)

The Freedom of Information (FOI) request for information (RFI) below has been placed with you, but not confirmed on the Access to Information Toolkit (AIT). [insert details here, of which area should answer which part of the RFI, if it has been broken into different sections]

Please acknowledge within two working days that you are the appropriate area to respond, or lead, and we will transfer this to you on AIT. You should respond to the requester within twenty working days of the date the request was made. If you consider that another area is more appropriate to respond or lead, then please approach them, also within two working days. Please engage with the FOI Helpdesk at all times when you are looking to place a request elsewhere. The FOI Helpdesk will be pleased to assist during this process.

This request will be automatically allocated to your area, on AIT, after three working days, if the FOI Helpdesk receives no acknowledgement of receipt or evidence of action to place the request elsewhere.

If you are copied into this email, you may be a relevant contributor to the response and you should liaise with the lead respondent.

This process is set out to maximise the amount of time to find information and respond, when this request has been placed with the appropriate subject matter expert.

Lastly, please see further headline guidance on FOI correspondence at http://defenceintranet.diiweb.r.mil.uk/DefenceIntranet/Library/CivilianAndJointService/BrowseDocumentCategories/Legal/UkLegislation/FreedomOfInformation/HeadlineFoiGuidance.htm or detailed guidance (including model answers) at http://defenceintranet.diiweb.r.mil.uk/DefenceIntranet/Admin/RespondToRequestsForInformation/. Dear Section 40

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request of 1 February 2009 asking whether there was any activity taking place over the Rhiw on the Lleyn Peninsula 31 January 2009 as several witnesses saw an unexplained light.

The Ministry of Defence does not keep a central record of all military aircraft activity and in order to accurately state whether there was any military flying activity in the area, we would need to contact some thirty flying stations across the UK, the cost which would exceed the £600 limit set for compliance with the Freedom of Information Act and, as provided by Section 12 of the Act, the Ministry of Defence is not obliged to comply with your request.

Whilst we do have a centralised record of aircraft entering the UK Low Flying System, this system was closed on the day in question and I would therefore very much doubt that the sightings were caused by military aircraft.

No other similar sightings were made for the areas in question over this period.
I hope this is helpful.

Dear Section 40

I am not aware of any other reports in this area for 2009. However, details of sightings reported to the MoD for the period 1997-2008 can be found on our website www.mod.uk by searching under UFO Reports.

I hope this is helpful.

Many thanks for your reply,

I was aware that the army were training the night before as their flares float across our land and are distinguishable as flares, these strange orange lights however, seem to be unidentifiable and very much fixed until one moved overhead.

Very strange..

Have you received any other reports in the locality by chance? There are many sightings it seems all, over the world, according to the internet and A LOT in the U.K. I've watched the video footage and it's apparent that we're witnessing the same strange unexplainable phenomena.

It bothers me that military can't explain this one away or isn't even aware that they were there,

I'll continue to keep skywatching,

I thank you again for help,

Subject: 20090302-FOI Response Section 40 Lights seen at Acrise 13-02-2009-171343-007-U

Dear Section 40 [redacted]

Thank you for your e-mail of 20 February 2009 relating to your earlier Freedom of Information request of 12 February 2009, in which you clarified that you saw orbs on 10 and 11 February 2009.

I can confirm that military training was taking place in the area of Pillars Wood on the night of the 9th and the morning of 10 February 2009. During the course of the training, parachute flares were used, which might be a possible explanation for the orbs that you saw on 10 February. However, we are not aware of any military activity that might explain what you saw on 11 February.

As I explained in my e-mail of 20 February 2009, the Ministry of Defence does not routinely attempt to identify the precise nature of sightings such as your's, so I am afraid I cannot help you any further. I hope this is helpful.

If you are unhappy with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of this request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Director of Information Exploitation, 6th Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail InfoXD@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain unhappy following an internal review, you may wish to take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, http://www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk.

Dear Section 40 [redacted]

Thank you for your e-mail of 12 February 2009 asking about low flying orange orbs you saw near Ministry of Defence (MoD) land.

Firstly, it may be helpful if I explain that the MoD examines any reports of 'unidentified flying objects' it receives solely to establish whether what was seen might have some defence significance; namely, whether there is any evidence that the United Kingdom's airspace might have been compromised by hostile or unauthorised air activity.

Unless there is evidence of a potential threat to the United Kingdom from an external source, and to date no UFO report has revealed such evidence, we do not attempt to identify the precise nature of each sighting reported to us. We believe that rational explanations, such as aircraft lights or natural phenomena, could be found for them if resources were diverted for this purpose, but it is not the function of the MoD to provide this kind of aerial identification service. It would be an inappropriate use of defence resources if we were to do so.

The MoD does not have any expertise or role in respect of 'UFO/flying saucer' matters or the question of the existence or otherwise of extraterrestrial life forms, about which it remains totally open-minded. I should add that to date, the MoD knows of no evidence which substantiates the existence of these alleged phenomena.
That having been said, if you can provide me with the dates when you saw these orbs I will try to find out if any military activity was taking place.

I have an FOI request asking about strange orange lights seen over MoD land at Acrise, near Folkstone. For my sins I am responsible for UFO matters within the MoD.

I "googled" Acrise and came up with the film location website and your name!

I need to find out whether any military activity was taking place on that land. I am assuming the dates were earlier this month but am seeking clarification from the applicant.

If I provide you with dates, can you tell me whether any filming was taking place and secondly, which part of the MoD "owns" that land. Is it associated with a particular base? Presumably your office must have a contact point to confirm that film makers will not be run over by a Challenger tank on exercise!
Perhaps we can discuss.

DISCLOSURE 14

AUTHORISATION FOR APPLYING FOI EXEMPTIONS/ EIR EXCEPTIONS

Applicant: Section 40 [redacted] Expiry date: 27 February 2009

Case Number: 04-02-2009-091026-001

The Applicant has made the following request for information:

Any and all information from any sources (including civilian) on an unidentified radar target reported by a Section 40 [redacted] for the period just before Christmas 1994. Actual request is attached.

Background

Any information relating to any UFO incident or sighting made in 1994-95 will be released in due course as part of the UFO File release programme.

A PIT examining the case for withholding information relating to this incident on the grounds it is due for future publication is outlined below and will be included in the response.

The following Exemption(s) and/or Exception(s) are proposed as appropriate for this case (list and provide justification):

Information not disclosed (detail)	FOIA exemption Specify section	Reason for application of exemption	PIT carried out? (Y/N)[1]
Information relating to UFO report by Section 40 [redacted] Section 40	22	Information intended for future publication	Y

The following comments will be made to the applicant:

Any report from Section 40 [redacted] to the MoD UFO Desk should be contained in files due for transfer to The National Archives later this year.

Therefore, as provided by exemption s.22 (Information intended for future publication) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, the MoD is not obliged to comply with this part of your request.

This is not the end of the matter, of course; section 22 is a qualified exemption, meaning that the MOD must assess the balance of public interest in release of the information.

Whilst there is undoubtedly public interest in these files being released to the public as it will enable them to have a more informed view of the MoD's role in this incident, there is no overriding reason why the public should have the information immediately. Indeed it could be argued, that by releasing files in chronological order, the public will be able to follow the role of the MoD in a more logical and orderly fashion, and to view actions in their correct historical perspective.

It is part of effective administration of government that the publication of information is planned and managed within the department responsible. The release of this file will undermine this release process, and delay the release of other files (which other members of the public may be waiting for) as work on them would necessarily have to be put off.

Finally, the release programme itself is complicated and the release of files out of sequence will result in unnecessary confusion for the MoD, The National Archives and, indeed, the public when they are attempting to track files once they are transferred.

It is for these reasons that we do not believe it would be in the public interest to release these files at this moment

I hereby give authorisation for the use of the aforementioned exemptions and/or exceptions in this case to withhold information from the Applicant:

Dear Section 40

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request asking for any information held regarding an unidentified target reported to the Ministry of Defence (MoD) by a Section 40 just before Christmas 1994.

Any report from Section 40 to the MoD UFO Desk should be contained in files due for transfer to The National Archives later this year, which will cover the period in question.

Therefore, as provided by exemption s.22 (Information intended for future publication) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, the MoD is not obliged to comply with this part of your request.

This is not the end of the matter, of course; section 22 is a qualified exemption, meaning that the MOD must assess the balance of public interest in release of the information.

Whilst there is undoubtedly public interest in these files being released to the public as it will enable them to have a more informed view of the MoD's role in this incident, there is no overriding reason why the public should have the information immediately. Indeed it could be argued, that by releasing files in chronological order, the public will be able to follow the role of the MoD in a more logical and orderly fashion, and to view actions in their correct historical perspective.

It is part of effective administration of government that the publication of information is planned and managed within the department responsible. The release of this file will undermine this release process, and delay the release of other files (which other members of the public may be waiting for) as work on them would necessarily have to be put off.

Finally, the release programme itself is complicated and the release of files out of sequence will result in unnecessary confusion for the MoD, The National Archives and, indeed, the public when they are attempting to track files once they are transferred.

It is for these reasons that we do not believe it would be in the public interest to release these files at this moment

I hope this is helpful.

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST.

Date: 23rd January, 2009.

Dear Sir/Madam,

I would respectfully like to request any and all information you have on the unidentified radar target reported to the MoD by Section 40 just before Christmas of 1994/1195 at RAF Lyneham in Wiltshire either stored in paper or electronic format. Please find attached a brief statement from Section 40 describing the events in question.

According to Section 40 he first reported this incident to the MoD by telephone and later in writing. In a recent telephone interview with him Section 40 also informed me that two security personnel on duty at RAF Lyneham that night telephone the control centre and spoke to him in person. Both security guards reported seeing this phenomenon themselves. I'd therefore respectfully like to request any other information from any other sources either civilian or military that you might have regarding the incident in question.

Any information concerning this event would be greatly appreciated.

Yours sincerely,

Firstly I must stress that I am one of the worlds biggest sceptics when it comes to UFO's, however I can offer no realistic explanation for what I saw, therefore it was literally an unidentified flying object.

I was working in Air Traffic control at RAF Lyneham in Wiltshire on a night shift. I was the approach controller and supervisor of the shift. At that time I must have had almost 20 years experience of working on radar and was very used to analysing the quirks which a radar can produce such as bird activity, anaprop (atmospheric variation) and MTI supression.

I was recovering a couple of C130's to base when I saw a large 'blob' on the radar screen about 3 miles from touchdown on the centreline. I had no idea what it was so I called it to the pilots and fed them around it. The 'blob' was stationary. I handed the aircraft over to the visual controller and then went upstairs to the visual control room, where I could see the 'blob' on the DFTI (Distance from touchdown indicator). I looked through the window but couldn't see anything so I returned to the radar room. Suddenly the 'blob' burst and fragmented shooting off in all directions at massive speed. Some discussion took place between me and the visual controller and we left it at that. Some time later I received a phone call from a very agitated airman who said ' Sir I have not been drinking, I am on guard duty and have just seen something that was very strange and I can't explain but thought that Air Traffic should be informed of'. He said he had seen a bright light to the East I remember commenting that it was nearly Christmas but doubted that we would find 3 wise men or a virgin at Lyneham. He said that the bright light had burst and that fragments had shot in all directions at speeds which he could not believe. He said he had never seen anything travel so fast and it was definitely not an aircraft. His account caused the hairs on my neck to stand up. Several minutes later another airman telephoned and gave a similar account. I logged all the details and telephoned the MOD UFO desk, gave them a verbal report backed up with a written report which hopefully they will still have on record.

This happened just before Christmas but I struggle to remember the year. I served at Lyneham in the early to mid 90's and guess it would be December 1994 or 1995. I think the visual controller was a chap called Section 40 who was a Sergeant at the time but later became commissioned. I've not really discussed the matter very much because I cannot justify or explain it any better than I have to you.

Please call me on my mobile if you would like to discuss it more. Section 40

Dear Sir,

I would like to request any information you have either written or electronic concerning the UFO captured on radar as outlined by Section 40 [redacted]. The full details of this incident are attached. The attached is a statement from Section 40 Section 40 himself.

This is the second request for information on this incident the first of which seems to have been ignored. Any assistance with this request would be greatly appreciated.

Dear Section 40

Thank you for your two Freedom of Information requests of 22 January 2009 asking about a UFO sighting on the Isle of Lewis on January and near Bridgend on 3 January 2009. You wished to know if there was any military activity in these areas at the time of the sightings and whether we had received any similar reports. Please take this response to cover both requests.

The Ministry of Defence does not keep a central record of all military aircraft activity and in order to accurately state whether there was any military activity in the area, we would need to contact some thirty flying stations across the UK, the cost which would exceed the £600 limit set for compliance with the Freedom of Information Act and, as provided by Section 12 of the Act, the Ministry of Defence is not obliged to comply with your request.

Whilst we do have a centralised record of aircraft entering the UK Low Flying System, this system was closed over the period in question and I would therefore very much doubt that the sightings were caused by military activity.

No other similar sightings were made for the areas in question over this period.
I am sorry I can not be more helpful.

We have received a report from a gentleman who lives on the Isle of Lewis in Scotland.

On the 1st of January 2009 at 12:30pm he saw 3 bright lights of a yellow/gold colour travelling across the sky.

Have you had any reports of a similar nature?

Also was there any military activity in the area on that date and around that time?

Dear Section 40

Thank you for your Freedom of Information (FOI) request dated 15 January 2009 asking for documentation regarding Flying Triangle sightings between 2006-08, UFO incidents at RAF Cosford, RAF Shawbury and Cornwall in 1993, in Belgium in 1989, over the Channel Islands in April 2007 and an incident involving an Air France flight from Nice to London in 1994.

Additionally, you wrote to Air Marshal Moran regarding the incidents at RAF Cosford, RAF Shawbury and Cornwall in 1993, Manchester in 1995 and a number of incidents in the USA. Since January 2009 this branch has lead responsibility for UFO matters within the Ministry of Defence (MoD) following a reorganisation of work and your letter has been passed to us to answer alongside your FOI request.

Details of UFO sightings for the period 2006-2008, which would include any Flying Triangles are now available for viewing on the MoD website www.mod.uk by searching under the phrase UFO Reports.

The information regarding the RAF Cosford, RAF Shawbury and Cornwall incidents is contained in a MoD file covering the sightings in late March 1993. This file was previously available on the MoD website but was removed for copyright reasons (it is possible you may already have seen it on the internet). If you will let me know whether you require a paper copy or an electronic version (our preferred option), I will arrange for it to be sent to you.

UFO files covering the period 1967-1992 have been passed to The National Archives and are available for public viewing on their website www.nationalarchives.gov.uk. Information relating to the Belgian incident may be found in the files available there. However, I am also aware that some later correspondence relating to this matter is also contained in files due for transfer to The National Archives later this year. These files will cover the period 1992 to 2000 and will therefore also include any information we may have on the Air France incident in 1994 and the British Airways incident near Manchester 1995.

Therefore, as provided by exemption s.22 (Information intended for future publication) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, the MoD is not obliged to comply with this part of your request.

This is not the end of the matter, of course; section 22 is a qualified exemption, meaning that the MOD must assess the balance of public interest in release of the information.

Whilst there is undoubtedly public interest in this file being released to the public as it will enable them to have a more informed view of the MoD's role in this incident, there is no overriding reason why the public should have the information immediately. Indeed it could be argued, that by releasing files in chronological order, the public will be able to follow the role of the MoD in a more logical and orderly fashion, and to view actions in their correct historical perspective.

It is part of effective administration of government that the publication of information is planned and managed within the department responsible. The release of this file will undermine this release process, and delay the release of other files (which other members of the public may be waiting for) as work on them would necessarily have to be put off.

Finally, the release programme itself is complicated and the release of files out of sequence will result in unnecessary confusion for the MoD, The National Archives and, indeed, the public when they are attempting to track files once they are transferred.

It is for these reasons that we do not believe it would be in the public interest to release these files at this moment

Turning to the incident over the Channel Islands, the limited documentation we hold on the matter can be viewed on the MoD website www.mod.uk by searching in our Disclosure Log under the phrase Channel Islands.

I am not aware of the MoD holding any information relating to the incidents in the USA that you mention. However, since a number of them are now quite old, you might wish to look at the files in The National Archives. As explained above, our files for the year 1997 are due for transfer to The National Archives later this year. If we hold any documentation regarding the incident in March 1997 it will be held on these files, although I very much doubt we would hold such information. Again, exemption s.22 applies. We hold no information on an incident in Texas in 2008.

I hope this is helpful.

If you are unhappy with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of this request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Director of Information Exploitation, 6th Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail InfoXD@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain unhappy following an internal review, you may wish to take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Applicant: Section 40 [redacted]

Case Number: 28-01-2009-121425-001 & 18-02-2009-093243-009

The Applicant has made the following request for information:

Section 40 [redacted] has asked for information regarding a wide range of UFO incidents. In Cornwall, RAF Cosford and RAF Shawbury in 1993, Manchester in 1995, Belgium in 1989, Flying Triangle sightings for the period 2006-08, over the Channel Islands in 2007, involving an Air France airliner in 1994 together with various sightings in the USA. Actual requests are attached.

Background

Flying Triangles are a type of UFO and sightings for the period 2006-08 are available for viewing on the MoD website alongside any other UFO sightings. Documents relating to the Channel Islands sighting are available for viewing on the MoD website.

Information relating to RAF Cosford, RAF Shawbury and Cornwall in 1993 will be made available to the applicant in redacted format. The redactions, which all come under Section 40 (Personal Information) have already been agreed with DG Info and placed in the public domain in the same manner as the Rendlesham file.

Any information relating to the Belgium, Manchester and Air France sightings will be released in due course as part of the UFO File release programme. As will any information held on the US sightings, although it is doubtful there actually is any.

We have no information regarding a sighting in Texas in 2008.

A PIT examining the case for withholding information relating to the Belgium, Manchester and Air France sightings on the grounds it is due for future publication is outlined below and will be included in the response.

The following Exemption(s) and/or Exception(s) are proposed as appropriate for this case (list and provide justification):

Information not disclosed (detail)	FOIA exemption Specify section	Reason for application of exemption	PIT carried out? (Y/N)[1]
Personal details, including names, telephone numbers, room numbers etc	40	Personal data	N
UFO documentation 1992-2007	22	Information intended for future publication	Y

Therefore, as provided by exemption s.22 (Information intended for future publication) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, the MoD is not obliged to comply with this part of your request.

This is not the end of the matter, of course; section 22 is a qualified exemption, meaning that the MOD must assess the balance of public interest in release of the information.

Whilst there is undoubtedly public interest in this file being released to the public as it will enable them to have a more informed view of the MoD's role in this incident, there is no overriding reason why the public should have the information immediately. Indeed it could be argued, that by releasing files in chronological order, the public will be able to follow the role of the MoD in a more logical and orderly fashion, and to view actions in their correct historical perspective.

It is part of effective administration of government that the publication of information is planned and managed within the department responsible. The release of this file will undermine this release process, and delay the release of other files (which other members of the public may be waiting for) as work on them would necessarily have to be put off.

Finally, the release programme itself is complicated and the release of files out of sequence will result in unnecessary confusion for the MoD, The National Archives and, indeed, the public when they are attempting to track files once they are transferred.

It is for these reasons that we do not believe it would be in the public interest to release these files at this moment

Turning to the incident over the Channel Islands, the limited documentation we hold on the matter can be viewed on the MoD website www.mod.uk by searching in our Disclosure Log under the phrase Channel Islands.

I am not aware of the MoD holding any information relating to the incidents in the USA that you mention. However, since a number of them are now quite old, you might wish to look at the files in The National Archives. As explained above, our files for the year 1997 are due for transfer to The National Archives later this year. If we hold any documentation regarding the incident in March 1997 it will be held on these files, although I very much doubt we would hold such information. Again, exemption s.22 applies. We hold no information on an incident in Texas in 2008.

I hereby give authorisation for the use of the aforementioned exemptions and/or exceptions in this case to withhold information from the Applicant:

Dear Sir,

I am writing with reference to your report of three 'unidentified flying objects' seen on the 11, 12 and 14 July 2008. This office is the focal point within the Ministry of Defence for correspondence relating to 'UFO's.

First, it may be helpful if I explain that the Ministry of Defence examines any reports of 'unidentified flying objects' it receives solely to establish whether what was seen might have some defence significance; namely, whether there is any evidence that the United Kingdom's airspace might have been compromised by hostile or unauthorised air activity.

Unless there is evidence of a potential threat to the United Kingdom from an external source, and to date no 'UFO' report has revealed such evidence, we do not attempt to identify the precise nature of each sighting reported to us. We believe that rational explanations, such as aircraft lights or natural phenomena, could be found for them if resources were diverted for this purpose, but it is not the function of the MOD to provide this kind of aerial identification service. It would be an inappropriate use of defence resources if we were to do so.

The MOD does not have any expertise or role in respect of 'UFO/flying saucer' matters to the question of the existence or otherwise of extraterrestrial life forms, about which it remains totally open-minded. I should add that to date, the MOD knows of no evidence which substantiates the existence of these alleged phenomena.

With regard to your three observations, I can confirm that for the 12 July 2008, we received four other UFO sighting reports, and they were from Surrey, Gloucestershire, Lincolnshire and North Yorkshire. We are satisfied that there is no corroborating evidence to suggest that the United Kingdom's airspace was breached by unauthorised aircraft.

Sorry I could not be any help.

Yours sincerely

Am a Field Investigator #: [redacted] serious.

I'm wanting to report strange sightings in the sky of Scarborough UK what I could only describe them as other people around the United Kingdom and America are seeing them at the same time just before me. UFOs. On 11th July 2008 at about 11:30pm whilst at my Computer I saw a cork that glowed like an Angel fly up and over from Trees then on 12th July 2008 at 11:52am I saw a pea pod shaped colour white fly through a blue part of the sky then through a cloud. Then on 14th July 2008 at 2:14am whilst I was still wide awake in bed I saw yet another UFO shaped as a firey star on stary night and flied through a black sky for a few seconds and vanished.

You can check out my Video of real Aliens at www.youtube.com/[redacted] with Aliens in a white building and one Alien standing next to a Bush caught on my Webcam seeing days after the Aliens in the building behind President George Bush of USA that wasn't shown on Video.

I've got a copy of it on Dvd if you want a copy of it let me know.

Thought it's best to tell you since other people are seeing UFO Sightings at the moment and that it's not me seeing things and something is going on in England with these UFO Sightings. I don't know what thou something like that should be investigated as it could be a threat to the United Kingdom from enemy of other countries with WMD or something like that.

Someone senses something big is going to happen near the end of 2008 as there isn't much time left in 2008.

I would appreciate a reply and if not then I don't mind.

Not on anything not taking any medication and wasn't watching any Science Fiction Films Tele programmes at that time and I know a UFO in reality is real and that Films are inmitating life of UFOs. I know Films isn't real when they have a UFO concept to them cause I know their just Special & Visual Effects in UFO Films.

Thanks.

Dear [redacted]

I am writing with reference to your report of an 'unidentified flying object' seen on 20 June 2008, the details of which you passed to the Westmorland Gazette. This office is the focal point within the Ministry of Defence for correspondence relating to 'UFO's.

First, it may be helpful if I explain that the Ministry of Defence examines any reports of 'unidentified flying objects' it receives solely to establish whether what was seen might have some defence significance; namely, whether there is any evidence that the United Kingdom's airspace might have been compromised by hostile or unauthorised air activity. With regard to your particular observation, I can confirm that we received one other report of a UFO sighting for the 20 June 2008, and that was from Doncaster in South Yorkshire. Dear [redacted]

Below is the original copy of an email I sent to the Westmorland Gazette over sightings of orange objects over Kendal, Cumbria, on Friday and Monday nights. When I saw the picture of three lights in a cross formation in the Sun today, I felt compelled to email you about my sightings (see formation second from bottom)

I hope you read this. Sightings in this area have picked up at an enormous rate in the last few weeks, all documented in the local Gazette.

I also would like to email the MoD about the sightings, but can't find a contact address!

Kind Regards

Dear [redacted]

My name is [redacted] I am 19 and in Kendal. I have seen these orange lights in the sky on two occassions (see below) since Friday, and I can say with absolute certainty that these are not satellites, space debris or the ISS.

The first sighting was looking west of Kendal at around 11pm on Friday night. Quite low was a bright red/orange light which I assumed was a light of a communications antenna but then realised there aren't any in that area so I stopped and watched it. I then thought it must be a red flare, but a few seconds later a bright, phosphorus white light fell from the orange one, and drifted slowly towards the ground before disappearing. As soon as the white light disappeared the red one slowly faded out. The red light was completly static throughout the 10-15 second sighting.

This sighting was not enough to make me want to email the Gazette, as I thought there must be a logical explanation for it. However last night my girlfriend came running into the house, in Kendal, and told me and my brother to come outside (at around 11.15pm). She said she had just seen an orange star move from it's place in the sky, dart across in a straight line and then do a NINETY DEGREES TURN before stopping. How many satellites can do this? We stared at it, and realised there were 3 other dim orange lights, and they were constantly moving in a formation, as if they were trying to find the correct position. They came very close together, then very far apart, the one on the left went from the top of the triangle (the shape they had formed) to the bottom within 2 or 3 seconds. The lights finally settled in an arrow shape, ie:

o

We watched for half an hour, but they weren't moving very much after that, but we noticed a new dimmer light above and to the right of the left light.

o
o

This new dimmer one moved alot, and the bottom right one started moving more too.

REDACTION ON ORIGINAL DOCUMENT

Our necks were hurting and we'd been staring for half an hour so we went outside, as they didn't seem to be moving any more. I went back out 5 minutes later to check up and they'd formed like this

o
o

This is not an exaggeration, and I wouldn't have e-mailed if I didn't see this for such a long period last night. I hope with all the reports you are getting you can let me know if anyone else saw either of the sightings, so I don't think I'm going insane! The fact that my girlfriend saw a light do a right-angle turn proves [redacted] can't dismiss these sightings as space shuttles or satellites.

27 January 2009

Dear Section 40

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request of 30th December 2008 asking for a copy of documents on the Rendlesham Incident that had previously been available on the MoD website. Additionally, following my e-mail of 16 January 2009 asking for clarification of your request, you asked for copies of any reports, memos or similar relating to UFO sightings over Kendal on 20th June 2008 and Scarborough on 11th,12th and 14 July 2008. I am waiting to retrieve the relevant files from archive and shall write to you separately on this point.

In accordance with your e-mail of 5 January 2009 I enclose a paper copy of the Rendlesham File which had previously been on our website. Some personal information such as names, addresses and telephone numbers has been withheld under exemption s.40 (Personal Information) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000. As this exemption is an absolute exemption an assessment of the public interest for and against disclosure is not required under the terms of the Act.

You may wish to note that the file is a compilation file comprised of documents that were removed from their original file and placed on this file. This would account for the non sequential enclosure numbering. Although the file cover states the file was opened on 25 October 1982, it is clear that this was not the case. Sec(AS) was not in being at this time, only being formed in early 1985 and therefore no file with a reference number commencing with D/Sec(AS) could have been in existence in 1982. No record of when the file was created can be found.

The original the enclosed file is one of 160 due for transfer to The National Archives as part of an ongoing three year programme that was featured quite heavily in the UK media over 2008, to make our UFO files from 1979 to 2007 available to the general public,

If you are unhappy with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Director of Information Exploitation, 6th Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail Info-XD@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain unhappy following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate the case until the internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, http://www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk."

Yours sincerely,

I understand from the message shown on the website that the documents relating to the Rendlesham Forest incident, previously available on the website but since withdrawn, are available upon request.

I am an accredited BUFORA investigator with an interest in the Rendlesham affair and would like to see the withdrawn documents as part of my research into the incident. Is this e-mail sufficient as a request to see those documents or is a more formal letter required?

Additionally, I am investigating a sighting in Cumbria that took place in July this year (2008) that appears to have been repeated in the vicinity of RAF Fylingdales during the same month. I would appreciate the opportunity to see any reports, memos or similar that relate to UFO sightings in the Cumbria and Fylingdales areas between 1 May and 31 July 2008.

Following an e-mail from this office, on 18 January 2008 the applicant limited his request regarding UFO incidents to the following:

20 June 2008	Kendal
11 July 2008	Scarborough
12 July 2008	Scarborough
14 July 2008	Scarborough.

Background

A Redacted version of the Rendlesham file was placed on the MoD website for public viewing before being removed in late 2007/early 2008 for copyright reasons. The applicant is referring to this.

The Rendlesham file was released on 7 occasions over 2008 and is one of the next batch of files due to be released to The National Archives in 2009.

The information on the Rendlesham file is non contentious. However, such is the fame of this incident and public interest in the case, that a great many names of indivduals involved are now already in the public domain and it makes little sense to withhold them unnecessarily. It would also open the MoD up to possible censure and ridicule. Therefore, a number of names and addresses have not been withheld. This is consistent with previous releases of the file and that intended for publication. Redactions have already been agreed with DG Info.

The following Exemption(s) and/or Exception(s) are proposed as appropriate for this case (list and provide justification):

Information not disclosed (detail)	FOIA exemption Specify section	Reason for application of exemption	PIT carried out? (Y/N)[1]
Personal details, including names, telephone numbers, room numbers etc	40	Personal data	No. Absolute Exemption

The following comments will be made to the applicant

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request of 30th December 2008 asking for a copy of documents on the Rendlesham Incident that had previously been available on the MoD website. Additionally, following my e-mail of 16 January 2009 asking for clarification of your request, you asked for copies of any reports, memos or similar relating to UFO sightings over Kendal on 20th June 2008 and Scarborough on 11th,12th and 14 July 2008. I am waiting to retrieve the relevant files from archive and shall write to you separately on this point.

In accordance with your e-mail of 5 January 2009 I enclose a paper copy of the Rendlesham File which had previously been on our website. Some personal information such as names, addresses and telephone numbers has been withheld under exemption s.40 (Personal Information) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000. As this exemption is an absolute exemption an assessment of the public interest for and against disclosure is not required under the terms of the Act.

You may wish to note that the file is a compilation file comprised of documents that were removed from their original file and placed on this file. This would account for the non sequential enclosure numbering. Although the file cover states the file was opened on 25 October 1982, it is clear that this was not the case. Sec(AS) was not in being at this time, only being formed in early 1985 and therefore no file with a reference number commencing with D/Sec(AS) could have been in existence in 1982. No record of when the file was created can be found.

The original the enclosed file is one of 160 due for transfer to The National Archives as part of an ongoing three year programme that was featured quite heavily in the UK media over 2008, to make our UFO files from 1979 to 2007 available to the general public,

I hereby give authorisation for the use of the aforementioned exemptions and/or exceptions in this case to withhold information from the Applicant:

Dear Section 40

Further to your Freedom of Information request of 30 December 2008, I have checked our records for UFO sightings in the Fylingdales and Cumbria areas for the period 1 May to 31 July 2008 and have come up with 9 sightings which might be of interest to you.

They are:

8 June	Middleton/Ilkley
20 June	Thorne/Doncaster
20 June	Kendal
22 June	Stanley/Wakefield
11 July	Scarborough
12 July	Scarborough
14 July	Scarborough
23 July	Keighley
27 July	Leeds

As you can see, I have interpreted the geographical area you are interested in rather broadly.
I have nothing relevant for May.
If you can tell me which sightings you would like documentation on, I will check our files and pass it on to you, although I suspect that the information we hold will be quite limited.

Dear Section 40 [redacted]

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request of 19 January 2009 asking for a copy of documents on the Rendlesham Incident available for public viewing. I assume that you are referring to the Ministry of Defence file on the subject that had previously been placed on our website. If this is not the case, please let me know.

Please find enclosed a paper copy of the Rendlesham File. Some personal information such as names, addresses and telephone numbers has been withheld under exemption s.40 (Personal Information) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000. As this exemption is an absolute exemption an assessment of the public interest for and against disclosure is not required under the terms of the Act.

If you are unhappy with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Director of Information Exploitation, 6th

If you remain unhappy following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate the case until the internal review process has been completed. Dear Section 40

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request of 22 January 2009 asking for details of all UFOs reported to the Ministry of Defence (MoD) since 1 January 2007. You also requested copies of the MoD response to in each case including any correspondence between the MoD and the individual making the response.

Details of all sightings for the period 1997-2008 are available on the MoD website www.mod.uk by searching under "UFO Reports". I attach details of UFO sightings for January 2009.

The cost of providing you with copies of MoD responses to these sightings would require us to prepare in the region of 400 documents for release to you by removing any personal data which would exceed the £600 limit set for compliance with the Freedom of Information Act and, as provided by Section 12 of the Act, the Ministry of Defence is not obliged to comply with your request. That having been said, the overwhelming majority of responses would be very similar and I attach a sample copy for your information. The names and contact details of individuals have been removed from this document as they are not a substantive part of the information you requested. I am sorry I can not be more helpful.

Dear [redacted]

I am writing with reference to your report of an 'unidentified flying object', seen in June 2008, the details of which you left on our answerphone. This office is the focal point within the Ministry of Defence for correspondence relating to 'UFOs.'

First, it may be helpful if I explain that the Ministry of Defence examines any reports of 'unidentified flying objects' it receives solely to establish whether what was seen might have some defence significance; namely, whether there is any evidence that the United Kingdom's airspace might have been compromised by hostile or unauthorised air activity.

Unless there is evidence of a potential threat to the United Kingdom from an external source, and to date no 'UFO' report has revealed such evidence, we do not attempt to identify the precise nature of each sighting reported to us. We believe that rational explanations, such as aircraft lights or natural phenomena, could be found for them if resources were diverted for this purpose, but it is not the function of the MOD to provide this kind of aerial identification service. It would be an inappropriate use of defence resources if we were to do so.

The MOD does not have any expertise or role in respect of 'UFO/flying saucer' matters to the question of the existence or otherwise of extraterrestrial life forms, about which it remains totally open-minded. I should add that to date, the MOD knows of no evidence which substantiates the existence of these alleged phenomena.

With regard to your particular observation, I can confirm that we received no other reports of 'UFO' sightings for Shirley, West Midlands in June 2008. We are satisfied that there is no corroborating evidence to suggest that the United Kingdom's airspace was breached by unauthorised aircraft.

Sorry I could not be any help.

Yours sincerely

Dear Section 40 [redacted]

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request of 15 January 2009 asking for information regarding UFO sightings over Greatstone on 1 January 2009 between 00:00 and 01:00am. Additionally, you asked for information on any other reports across the UK around that time.
This office has responsibility for UFO matters across the Ministry of Defence. To date we have received no UFO sightings for Greatstone. However, we have received a number of sightings for 31 December 2008 to 1 January 2009, details of which I attach for your information.
I hope this is helpful.

If you are unhappy with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of this request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Director of Information Exploitation, 6th Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail InfoXD@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

Dear Section 40 [redacted]

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request of 14 January 2009 asking for a full list of UFO sightings reported to the Ministry of Defence since January 2008. Additionally, you asked for details of the sighting, the location and the date of the sighting and when it was received. Also, you asked for the number of UFO sightings for the years 2006-2008.
Details of UFO sightings for the period 1997-2008 are now available for public viewing on the MoD website www.mod.uk by searching under UFO reports. I attach details of UFO sightings for January 2009. In a number of cases we do not have the actual date of the sighting. The MoD does not keep a central catalogue of when each sighting was reported to us and in order to provide you with this information, we would need to back track through our files to create such a list. If having viewed the UFO records on the website you still require this information, please let me know.
I hope this is helpful.
If you are unhappy with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of this request, then you should contact me in the first instance. Dear Section 40

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request of 19 January 2009 asking for copies of photographs of UFOs that are either particularly interesting to the Ministry of Defence (MoD) or cannot be explained.
The MoD has UFO files dating back to the early 1990s. We do not hold separate files for UFO photographs, which, if retained, are filed on our standard paper files in date order. To provide you with the information you have requested, we would need to manually search over 120 files, the cost of which would far exceed the £600 limit set for compliance with the Freedom of Information Act and, as provided by Section 12 of the Act, the MoD is not obliged to comply with your request. However, if you could narrow the parameters of your request, perhaps to a couple of years, we may be able to assist you.
The Ministry of Defence examines any reports of 'unidentified flying objects' it receives solely to establish whether what was seen might have some defence significance; namely, whether there is any evidence that the United Kingdom's airspace might have been compromised by hostile or unauthorized foreign military activity.

Unless there is evidence of a potential threat to the United Kingdom from an external military source, and to date no 'UFO' report has revealed such evidence, we do not attempt to identify the precise nature of each sighting reported to us. We believe that rational explanations, such as aircraft lights or natural phenomena, could be found for them if resources were diverted for this purpose, but it is not the function of the MOD to provide this kind of aerial identification service. It would be an inappropriate use of defence resources if we were to do so. We do not therefore, routinely attempt to identify or explain objects seen in UFO photographs forwarded to us, hence the photographs are not categorised in any way. Our sole concern is to satisfy ourselves that the photographs are not of defence significance.

You may be interested to know that the MOD has already released a great deal of information about UFOs which is available for public viewing. MOD files were routinely destroyed after five years until 1967 when they were generally preserved for The National Archives. A few have survived before 1967 and these together with records up to 1992 are now available for public viewing. The National Archives can be contacted at Ruskin Avenue, Richmond, Kew, Surrey TW9 4DU or telephone, 020 8876 3444. The National Archives also have a website giving information about the records they hold and how to access them. This can be found on the internet at: http://www.nationalarchives.gov.uk.

You may also be interested to know that the MoD is engaged in a three year programme to transfer UFO files covering the period 1997-2007 to The National Archives. Files will be transferred in chronological order with those covering 1992-2000 transferred in 2009 and those covering 2001-2007 in 2010.

If you are unhappy with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of this request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Director of Information Exploitation, 6th Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-[redacted] InfoXD@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain unhappy following an internal review, you may wish to take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, http://www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk.

Dear Section 40 [redacted]

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request of 5 January 2009 asking whether there were any military aircraft in the area of Kilmarnock on 19 June 2008 at 2:10 am and whether anything unusual was detected by air traffic control.

The Ministry of Defence does not routinely retain radar tapes beyond 30 days and I am therefore unable to check this source to see if there were any military aircraft in the area at the time. I would say however, that whilst it is not very likely that military aircraft were operating in the area at that time of day, it cannot be completely ruled out. I am therefore pursuing your request with another branch within the MoD and am awaiting a response from them. I will write again as soon as I hear from that branch.

Please accept my apologies for the delay in responding to you fully.

Section 40

I have received a FOI request (see below) asking whether any military aircraft were flying over Kilmarnock at 2:10am on 19th June 2008 and whether anything unusual was spotted on Scottish air traffic control. I believe we have to consider the second part of the question as asking whether the MoD detected anything unusual. As with all such requests, we run the risk of the process for answering the request turning into a mini UFO investigation!

However, can you tell whether there was anything military in the area at the time? (I assume the tapes have been wiped and I know from past experience that it will cost in excess of £600 to ask every flying station if they had aircraft flying at the time.) Secondly, did any of the radar people log anything unusual for that time and location? I am keen that we don't set too many hares running on this as I am aware that your guys have other things to do!

I have just moved in to my new office but things are not fully up and running yet and my IT has not been sorted out, so you are best off e-mailing any response to my internet address below.

Happy to discuss.

I am a certified UFO Field Investigator for MUFON (Mutual UFO Network) and am currently investigating a possible UFO sighting which happened on 19th June 2008 at 2.10am BST over Kilmarnock, Scotland. The object witnessed was an orange oval shape with 5 smaller star-like objects attached and were also orange. The witness says the object hovered and remained still for 5-10 minutes before accelerating off at tremendous speed eastward and disappeared in a flash. Due to this, the witness is sure it was not a helicopter.

My enquiries to the Police, Coastguard and local helicopter tour companies have shown no helicopter was flying in the area at the time in question.
I have made enquiries to nearby Prestwick airport as to whether anything unusual was detected on their radar- but have received no response!
I then enquired to nATS and Scottish Air traffic Control with the same question, and they said because my query was to do with UFOs to contact the M.O.D.
All I wish to know is whether any military aircraft was in that area near Kilmarnock on that date & time and if anything unusual was detected on Scottish Air traffic control.

Dear Section 40

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request of 28 December 2008, which reported orange lights over Carlisle on Christmas Day and asked whether they could have been caused by Meteorological Office equipment.

Firstly, it may be helpful if I explain that the Ministry of Defence (MoD) examines any reports of 'unidentified flying objects' it receives solely to establish whether what was seen might have some defence significance; namely, whether there is any evidence that the United Kingdom's airspace might have been compromised by hostile or unauthorised air activity.

Unless there is evidence of a potential threat to the United Kingdom from an external source, and to date no UFO report has revealed such evidence, we do not attempt to identify the precise nature of each sighting reported to us. We believe that rational explanations, such as aircraft lights or natural phenomena, could be found for them if resources were diverted for this purpose, but it is not the function of the MoD to provide this kind of aerial identification service. It would be an inappropriate use of defence resources if we were to do so.

I can confirm that we have received no other reports of UFO sightings so far from the Carlisle area for Christmas Day. As regards your question as to whether the lights could have been Meteorological Office equipment, I am afraid I do not hold such information. If you would like to contact them directly, their website address is www.metoffice.co.uk.

I am sorry I cannot be more helpful.

If you are unhappy with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of this request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Director of Information Exploitation, 6th Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail InfoXD@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain unhappy following an internal review, you may wish to take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the internal review process has been completed. There were four or five in number, each roughly equally spaced some distance apart, and travelling from east to west. They appeared to retain a constant altitude and remained in view for approx 5+ minutes before disappearing from view approximately over the Solway Firth.

One of the lights appeared to split in two before falling/descending earthwards due north of Carlisle, the remainder continued westward.

Dear Section 40

I am writing with reference to your e-mail of 13 January 2009 reporting an 'unidentified flying object', seen over Brightlingsea in Essex. This office is the focal point within the Ministry of Defence for correspondence relating to UFOs.

Firstly, it may be helpful if I explain that the Ministry of Defence (MoD) examines any reports of 'unidentified flying objects' it receives solely to establish whether what was seen might have some defence significance; namely, whether there is any evidence that the United Kingdom's airspace might have been compromised by hostile or unauthorised air activity.

Unless there is evidence of a potential threat to the United Kingdom from an external source, and to date no UFO report has revealed such evidence, we do not attempt to identify the precise nature of each sighting reported to us. It would be an inappropriate use of defence resources if we were to do so.

The MoD does not have any expertise or role in respect of 'UFO/flying saucer' matters or the question of the existence or otherwise of extraterrestrial life forms, about which it remains totally open-minded. I should add that to date, the MoD knows of no evidence which substantiates the existence of these alleged phenomena.

With regard to your particular observation, I can confirm that we have received no other reports of UFO sightings so far from Brightlingsea k this year. However, I will check whether military air defence staff are aware of any relevant unusual occurrence and will let you know accordingly.

Dear Sir/ Madam,
Please forgive me if I have your information wrong.
I have been given advice from a colleague of mine to contact your self.
This was not reported to Police per say but I thought I ought to let you know as I saw it.
I have been a serving Police Officer for a number of years now and my Partner Karl Norman who was with me at the time is an ex serviceman in the RAF.
I was at my friends address in Brightlingsea, Essex on New Years Eve seeing in the New Year, just before midnight my self and my partner were in the back garden having a cigarette; I could hear fireworks in the distance so looked up to see if I could see them. In the sky was a bright orange/yellow light at first glance I ignored it thinking it was a trailing firework but then double took as it did not disappear. My immediate thought w[redacted]ve are near water and perhaps that could explain the light but it still did not disappear, it moved very slowly in like a half circle around the top of us then stopped over the water between Brightlingsea and East Mersea. It was quite large and the night was extremely clear with no clouds or mist. I would hazard a guess about 1500 to 2000 feet up. It stayed perfectly still for about 3-4 minutes then appeared to shoot straight up in the air very fast, going completely out of view in less then 30 seconds, I must be honest I stood their a bit in awe and missed the start of the new year because of it. In fact I even called my friends daughter to see it!

It may be completely trivial to you and you may even press the delete button, but after a few days of wondering weather I was seeing things I saw the news about the Lincoln sightings and damage to the wind turbine I could have fallen off my seat it was very similar to what I saw New years eve. With Karl being ex RAF I asked him quite innocently what it was and he was as disturbed as I was with no answer!
I would not have bothered you with it in all honesty but having it play on my mind a few days I thought you were the best people to make the decision about weather it was worth your time or not.

If you have any questions or queries I will be happy to assist in any way possible.

I have a UFO report for New Years Eve over Brightlingsea in Essex. I don't have an exact time but would suggest between 11:00 pm and 1:00 am the next morning. The height has been estimated at 1500-2000, which would place it in the low flying system.

Whilst I am certain I already know the answer, can you confirm that we had nothing flying around that time and place?

Cheers.

Our Ref:
UFO Sighting Report

21 January 2009

Dear Section 40 [redacted]

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request of 10 January 2009 asking any and all files regarding an alleged UFO incident over Cologne in 1988/89.

I have established that the information you requested is not held by the Ministry of Defence (MoD). The MoD UFO files for 1967 to 1992, which would cover the incident you are interested in, and any files prior to 1967 which have survived, have been passed to The National Archives at Ruskin Avenue, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, TW9 4DU, Telephone: 0208 876 3444. Details of how to access these records and The National Archives on line catalogue can be found on their website at www.nationalarchives.gov.uk.

You may also be interested to know that the MoD has a programme to transfer a further 150 files covering the period up to 2007 to The National Archives by the end of 2010. The MoD has also released details of UFO sightings for the period 1997-07 on its website www.mod.uk, which can be found by searching under "UFO Reports". Details for 2008 will be added shortly.

I hope this is helpful.

If you are unhappy with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of this request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Director of Information Exploitation, 6th Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall SW1A 2HB (e-mail InfoXD@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain unhappy following an internal review, you may wish to take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate the case until the internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, http://www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk.

The Constitution Unit, a research body at University College London, is carrying out an independent evaluative study of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 in co-operation with a number of public authorities, including the Ministry of Defence. An important part of the evaluation process is gathering the experiences and opinions of FOI requesters like you. Any information you provide will only be seen by the Constitution Unit and will be handled in accordance with its privacy policy explained in the survey. The Ministry of Defence will only see the published results: no individual responses will be visible to us and your participation will have no effect on your future dealings with the Ministry.

If you would like to take part in this study, please visit the following link to be taken directly to the survey: http://tinyurl.com/6prff8. Or, if you prefer, contact Section 40 at Section 40 or on Section 40 to ask more about the study.

If you have filled this survey out before, we invite you to fill it out again in light of the recent response to your request.

Subject: Release-Authorised: FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST 12-01-2009-083541-008 SPACECRAFT OF UNKNOWN ORIGIN

Dear Section 40 [redacted]

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request of 8 January 2009 asking for any information on "space-craft" of unknown origin investigated by the Ministry of Defence (MoD). By unknown origin, I assume that you mean extra-terrestrial. If this is not the case, please let me know.

The MoD does not have any expertise or role in respect of 'UFO/flying saucer' matters or the question of the existence or otherwise of extra-terrestrial life forms, about which it remains totally open-minded. I should add that to date, the MoD knows of no evidence which substantiates the existence of extra-terrestrial space-craft and therefore has not investigated any.
That having been said, the MoD receives a considerable number of reports each year concerning UFOs. Details of these reports for the period 1997-2007 can be found on our website www.mod.uk by searching under "UFO Reports". Details of sightings for 2008 will be added shortly.
Additionally, the MoD has already released a great many of its files about UFOs which are now available for public viewing. MoD files were routinely destroyed after five years until 1967 when they were generally preserved for The National Archives. A few have survived before 1967 and these, together with files up to 1992, are now available for public viewing. The National Archives can be contacted at Ruskin Avenue, Richmond, Kew, Surrey TW9 4DU or telephone, 020 8876 3444. The National Archives also have a website giving information about the records they hold and how to access them. This can be found on the internet at: www.nationalarchives.gov.uk.
If you are unhappy with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of this request, then you should contact me in the first instance.
